

Garrett Park Film Society
Town Hall

Friday, June 13th

7:30 Cowboy Chow Refreshments

8:00 "Shane" (118 minutes)

Free to member

$5 at the door for non-members

For a compelling review, see

<http://us.imdb.com/Title?0046303>

What is admirable about Shane is not his skill with his gun, but his restraint in using it.

It is the most tasteful achievement ever invented to create a legend, an instant myth. Only Stevens--with his meticulously picturesque visuals and his evident desire to treat the Western as an art form--could have mastered the archetypal simplicity and vitality of 'Shane'. The closing scenes remain among the most haunting memories in the history of cinema.